

COMRADE PRAKASH BANSODE PASSED AWAY

Comrade Prakash Bansode (18th July 1946 - 19th May 2020) was a housing rights activist and working with CPI before 1975 Emergency. After Emergency, he joined CRC CPI (ML) and was active in Mumbai slums and extensively mobilised adivasis and other peasants in Thane district. He was very efficient in mobilising masses and agitations. He actively assisted the famous mill workers strike in 1981-82 period by collecting all possible helps to them from the people of Mumbai. Later he became a State Committee member of CPI (ML) Red Flag.

He met with a serious bike accident, and later, was under going dialysis. He encouraged his family too to joined revolutionary movement and party.

His wife Comrade Bharati Bansode was a State Committee member of CPI(ML) Red Flag and was a state leader of government nursing staff. Comrade Adesh Bansode, State Secretary of MLPI (Red Flag), is his son.

We dip the Red banner to salute our beloved comrade in the final and resolve to hold on to the revolutionary aim that he unflinchingly had in his life and struggles.

RED SALUTE TO COMRADE PRAKASH BANSODE

